One-Stop Career Center | What is a One-Stop Career Center?

The College of Alameda One-Stop Career Center is a part of EASTBAY Works, a network of thirteen One-Stop Business and Career Centers located throughout Alameda and Contra Costa Counties. Our career centers are available free of charge to the entire community. We offer a varied menu of services to job seekers of all ages and abilities, and to businesses of all sizes and types. East Bay Works is a regional partnership designed to coordinate employment activities in and around the surrounding communities. EASTBAY Works is funded by the Department of Labor and the State of California. Please visit: www.eastbayworks.com for additional information.

Together, with over twenty local community-based and governmental organizations, the Alameda One-Stop Career Center works as a collaborative team. Seeking to ensure that employment, training, and other workforce related services in the City of Alameda are provided in an efficient and seamless manner. Many of our partners have on-site hours or are available on-call. For a detailed list please visit us in portable P at the College of Alameda campus. Our address is:
