Often the person being harmed feels alone, embarrassed, and scared. You can intervene by speaking up and saying something appropriate to the situation.

For more information on how to prevent sexual assault and other forms of sexual violence, what to do if you are a survivor, and to help create an empowered and healthy campus environment, visit Health Services in the F Building.
A Message from the College of Alameda Community including: Health Services, Student Services, & Campus Safety.

College of Alameda’s Mission is to serve the educational needs of our diverse community by providing comprehensive and flexible programs and resources that empower students to achieve their goals.

Know the difference between consent and assault.

For more information on how to prevent sexual assault and other forms of sexual violence, what to do if you are a survivor, and to help create an empowered and healthy campus environment, visit Health Services in the F Building.

College of Alameda thanks The New School in NYC for permission to use the “Yes Means Yes” campaign. Graphics created by Neha Shah, Parsons graduate. www.newschool.edu

Safe Community
College of Alameda is a safe community.

ASK FIRST
CONSENT IS HOT, ASSAULT IS NOT

Yes means yes.

Need a safety aide? Want an escort to your car? Call 510-748-2311 or 510-748-2327.
For help in an emergency situation: call the Peralta Police Services at 510-466-7236.
SAFE COMMUNITY
College of Alameda is a safe community.

Yes means yes. Learn what sexual assault is. Know your rights, set boundaries, practice active consent, be an empowered bystander.

For more information on how to prevent sexual assault and other forms of sexual violence, what to do if you are a survivor, and to help create an empowered and healthy campus environment, visit Health Services in the F Building.

College of Alameda thanks The New School in NYC for permission to use the “Yes Means Yes” campaign. Graphics created by Neha Shah, Parsons graduate. www.newschool.edu

SEXUAL ASSAULT AWARENESS
KNOW IT, LIVE IT

A message from the College of Alameda including: Health Services, Student Services, & Campus Safety.