The office of Student Activities and Campus Life at the College of Alameda is responsible for a variety of activities, such as on-campus events, the Associated Student Government, Student Clubs, and also houses lost and found items. In an effort to increase student outreach and engagement, this is the first of many Newsletters to highlight previous, current, and upcoming events!

Latinos Heritage Month
(Click on the image to see more photos)

During September 15th to October 15th the College of Alameda had a series of events to celebrate Latino Heritage Month. We kicked off the month long celebrations with free food and live music. There were also several other educational and uplifting events on campus, such as: a Film screening of the movie “Walkout”, Aztec Dancing, and Dia de la Raza to close of the series of events. Thank you to all who participated in these events.

Highlights of Past Events
In addition to Latino Heritage Month, here is a list of the
